Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Honor Flight South Dakota was established to give WWII Veterans a free trip to see their newly completed National Memorial in Washington DC; and,

Whereas, Thousands of South Dakotans raised funds and volunteered time to assure the success of the Honor Flight South Dakota mission; and,

Whereas, Nearly 1,400 South Dakota WWII Veterans participated in twelve Honor Flight trips; and,

Whereas, The Mission of Honor Flight South Dakota has been successfully completed, but the duty of the community to recognize the service of all Veterans lives on; and,

Whereas, KELO-Land Television will broadcast an Honor Flight South Dakota documentary on Monday evening September 12, 2011; and,

Whereas, Many American Legion, VFW, DAV Posts and Chapters across South Dakota are participating with a community "Open House" that same evening:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 12, 2011, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
